Louis XIV

Well done, you've found Louis XIV, also known as the Sun King.

It was in 1682 that he moved to Versailles with his court and government. This bronze statue representing him on a horse was restored and moved to Place d'Armes in 2006. It had never been moved since it was installed in 1836!

01. Around the Louvre museum
Starting from the Louvre, the largest museum in the world, you will be able to discover this wonderful historic district as you pass through the Tuileries gardens on your journey to the Comédie-Française.

02. Around the Eiffel Tower
Built for the 1889 Universal Exhibition and originally named the "300-meter tower", the Eiffel Tower has become the symbol of the French capital... and an architectural phenomenon!

03. Around the Sacré-Cœur
Welcome to Montmartre, the famous hill topped by the Basilica of Sacré-Cœur. The Paris Commune took place in Montmartre in 1871 before it became a popular district for artists during the 19th and 20th centuries.

04. Around the Pompidou Centre
This museum houses Europe's greatest collection of modern art. You will see the museum as you stroll towards the historic center of Le Marais. You might also catch a glimpse of many colorful characters along the way!

05. Around La Villette and Pantin
The Cité des sciences et de l'industrie has pride of place in the Parc de La Villette. The Park itself is crossed by the Ourcq canal and is home to many gardens, street art frescoes and cultural spaces.

06. Saint-Denis
Near the Stade de France® you can admire the former royal abbey of Saint-Denis, which was one of the places where the Kings and Queens of France were crowned. This adventure offers the perfect balance between modernity and history.

07. Vincennes
The Château de Vincennes protected the capital city for a very long time. After strolling along the pathways of Vincennes' famous wood and the streets of the town center, discover this fortress which was also used as a prison.

08. Vitry-sur-Seine
Now you're in Vitry-sur Seine! Here you will find many amazing attractions such as the MAC VAL art museum, the Exploradôme, the town hall as well as many street art frescoes...

09. Boulogne-Billancourt
Welcome to Boulogne-Billancourt! Just a stone's throw from the capital, this area has something for everyone: from the modern Seine musicale concert hall to the serres d'Auteuil (Auteuil greenhouses) and the famous 1930s buildings.

10. Sceaux
Discover the estate previously owned by Colbert where you can admire his château, the huge canal, the French garden and the orangery. Not far from there you can also explore the Home of Chateaubriand and the Arboretum of the Vallée-aux-Loups...

11. Meaux
